

Mike Mitsock Joins KVH to Lead Global Marketing Efforts

September 23, 2015

The New Vice President of Marketing Brings Extensive Experience in the Global Technology and Software Industries

MIDDLETOWN, R.I., Sept. 23, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- KVH Industries, Inc., (Nasdaq:KVHI) announced today that Mike Mitsock has joined the senior management team as vice president of marketing for the global company, which is a leading provider of mobile broadband solutions and guidance and stabilization products.

"We are delighted that Mike has joined us, bringing more than 20 years' global experience in the technology and software sectors," says Martin Kits van Heyningen, chief executive officer of KVH Industries. "His depth of experience is essential to guiding our exciting initiatives across the wide range of key markets we serve, from maritime satellite communications to emerging autonomous vehicle platforms."

Mr. Mitsock's experience includes positions at the vice president, senior vice president, and chief marketing officer (CMO) levels in the technology and software sectors across a number of industries, including such companies as Lotus Development, Tele Atlas, and Optum, and at various Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) providers. His experience covers all areas of marketing, including product marketing, sales enablement, demand generation, communications, public relations, marketing automation, and social media.

A Boston-area native, Mr. Mitsock has an excellent technical background in addition to his business and marketing experience, earning a bachelor of science degree in nuclear engineering from MIT, a master of science degree in mechanical engineering from Northeastern University, and an MBA specializing in marketing and strategic management from Boston University.

"KVH is a leading innovator in exciting markets including satellite communications and autonomous systems," says Mr. Mitsock. "KVH's technology and brand are of the highest caliber, and I'm pleased to have this opportunity to lead the efforts for brand expansion and continued revenue growth on a global basis."

Mr. Mitsock is located at the company's global headquarters in Middletown, Rhode Island.
