Company initiates search for new Chief Executive Officer*

MIDDLETOWN, R.I.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 7, 2022-- KVH Industries, Inc., (Nasdaq: KVHI), today announced that its longstanding President and Chief Executive Officer, Martin Kits van Heyningen, is retiring from his executive and Board roles after more than 40 years at the Company.

Mr. Kits van Heyningen is a co-founder of KVH and has served as President and a director since 1982, Chief Executive Officer since 1990 and as Chairman of the Board of Directors since 2007. He has been issued eleven patents while at the Company.

Mr. Kits van Heyningen stated, "I am extremely proud of all that has been accomplished at KVH during my time at the Company. We have invented new technologies and have grown from a small number of employees and a few products to a world leader in our markets. This is the right moment for me to step back from KVH to focus on other endeavors and to turn KVH over to the next generation of leadership. I am confident that the Company is well-positioned for success moving forward."

The Board has engaged a nationally recognized executive search firm to identify a new Chief Executive Officer. During this process, current Chief Operating Officer Brent Bruun will assume the role of Interim Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Bruun has been with KVH since 2008 and has played a critical role in the growth of the Company's industry-leading Mobile Connectivity business.

"I am gratified by the Board's confidence in this appointment to interim CEO. KVH is recognized for its innovative solutions and their value to our customers. I look forward to working with the Board, our senior leadership, and my fellow employees worldwide to build on that record of innovation, leadership, and outstanding products to achieve sustainable and profitable results."

The Board appointed Cathy-Ann Martine-Dolecki, one of KVH's current independent directors, to serve as the new Chairman of the Board. Ms. Martine-Dolecki has extensive global leadership experience in the telecommunications industry, including spending four decades at AT&T, including in senior executive roles.

Ms. Martine-Dolecki commented, "We would like to thank Martin for his 40 years of service. Martin was an inventor, engineer, manager, executive and leader of our Company and, over his career, inspired countless employees and launched several entirely new markets. He has built an exceptional company."

She continued, "The Board's strategic focus is on achieving sustained profitability. We will accomplish this by concentrating on the core businesses where we are a leader and operating with more cost discipline. This will allow us to get to positive operating income faster, and ultimately to increase shareholder value."

In a separate press release this morning, KVH announced results for its fourth quarter and full year 2021. The Company's financial results were in-line with previously provided guidance.
