

KVH Announces Exciting Price Reduction on Award-winning TracVision Satellite TV for RVs

April 30, 2009

Breakthrough prices will enable RV owners to enjoy digital satellite TV with support for HDTV using KVH's TracVision systems for under $1,000

MIDDLETOWN, R.I., April 30 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Summer is rapidly approaching and with it comes the high season for recreational vehicle enthusiasts to hit the road and enjoy their life on the move. Part of the pleasure in the RV lifestyle is traveling to new places while not leaving behind the comforts of home and that includes your favorite television shows. KVH Industries, Inc. (Nasdaq: KVHI), the world leader in mobile satellite systems, is pleased to announce that a breakthrough price reduction on its award-winning TracVision(R) satellite TV systems for RVs is making it even more affordable to enjoy hundreds of channels of live satellite TV while saving hundreds of dollars.

"RV owners are focused on refitting their current coaches and getting outstanding value when choosing the accessories they'll take along," observes Bob Cooper, KVH's national sales manager for land mobile products. "With KVH's TracVision systems, you receive the industry's highest quality satellite TV solutions with outstanding digital performance, a choice of in-motion or stationary designs, and full compatibility with DIRECTV(R) as well as DISH Network(R)'s TurboHD and ExpressVu's HDTV programming. Our new prices ensure that recreational vehicle enthusiasts receive the best satellite TV solution available at even more affordable prices, making TracVision the perfect combination for RV owners who are hitting the road in 2009."

The price reduction applies to all of KVH's 12" high TracVision satellite TV systems:

| TracVision Model | New Price | Old Price | Consumer Savings |
|------------------|-----------|-----------|------------------|
| R4SL | $999 | $1,299 | $300 |
| R5SL | $1,399 | $1,999 | $600 |
| R6ST | $2,149 | $2,499 | $350 |
| R6DX | $2,299 | $2,699 | $400 |

These domed TracVision mobile satellite TV systems offer RV owners unmatched benefits, including the highest signal gain, reception superior even to competing, larger 15" high antennas, and totally automatic satellite switching via the remote control.
