

KVH Recognizes Electronics Unlimited with its First Annual Dealer of the Year Award

October 9, 2009

KVH Industries honors top marine dealer Electronics Unlimited for outstanding support and customer service at the 2009 NMEA Conference

MIDDLETOWN, R.I., Oct. 9 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- In keeping with its commitment to providing excellent dealer support, KVH Industries, Inc. (Nasdaq: KVHI) recently recognized Electronics Unlimited of Fort Lauderdale, FL with its first annual Dealer of the Year (Leisure Marine) award at the National Marine Electronics Association (NMEA) conference last week.

"We're happy to recognize Electronics Unlimited as our first Dealer of the Year," says Jim George, director of sales for KVH. "Not only did this team manage to increase sales of KVH products in a very difficult economy over the past year, they did it by consistently providing the exceptional customer service and support that KVH customers have come to expect."

"We are very proud to be named Dealer of the Year for KVH," says Ron Muller, president of Electronics Unlimited. "It is easy to do your job as a dealer when you associate yourself with a manufacturer like KVH that prides itself on customer service and quality products. The Electronics Unlimited team is excited about this honor, and we're looking forward to a great year in 2010."
